European Network for Radiation-Detection-based Research and Innovation addressing increasing societal Challenges - ENRICH

2nd Call for applications for Young Researcher and Innovator Conference Grants (YRIC)

Deadline for applications: open call
YRIC must be completed by 20th October 2026

The second call for applications for Young Researcher and Innovator (YRIC) Conference Grants is now open. YRI Conference Grantees receive financial support to attend a conference and present their work through a poster or oral presentation.

Applications are open to researchers and innovators who are young researchers and whose work aligns with the objectives and Working Groups of ENRICH. Applications can be submitted at any time. However, they must be submitted at least 30 days before the start of the travel.

1. About the ENRICH COST Action CA24131

The ENRICH (European Network for Radiation-Detection-based Research and Innovation addressing increasing societal Challenges) COST Action aims to establish a strong European network of researchers and stakeholders engaged in radiation-detection experiments and applications.

Photon detection is a daily tool for many researchers across fields such as astrophysics, nuclear and atomic physics, materials science, data analysis, simulations, detector development, electronics, optics, medicine and biophysics, cultural heritage, food safety,
